Makin' a Million (M&M)

Yesterday I opened an account at eTrade. In the coming weeks I will deposit $5,000 in that account. I will attempt to build / create / turn that $5,000 to $1,000,000.

If you choose, you can watch or participate. It is free to subscribers of LOTM for the next year. After that I will ask that you subscribe to a new newsletter LOTM's Making a Million (M&M).

Taking $5,000 and building it into a million dollars is something I have done once before. Perhaps I was lucky. That is one of the reasons I am doing this. I want to prove to myself that it was not luck the first time. I want to prove to myself that I can repeat the process.

Other reasons are financial.

The market is poised for explosive moves from a value perspective so the timing is right. My diversification into real estate in the 2002 and 2006 has not worked very well. I want to make back some of the money now sitting in real estate and fund other ventures.

In other words, I can use the money!

So here we go. I will attempt to take $5,000 and turn it into one million a second time.

You have the opportunity (and challenge) of following along in real time this journey. This is not a get rich quick scheme. This process will take years and it will be very challenging to those of you who choose to take this journey with me. You will be required to make hard decisions that will challenge your belief system and have never made before. Most of all, you will have to trust and believe that you can do this.

There will be days and nights where decisions that you made comfortably with $5,000, you will make with $500,000. The game will be the same but the numbers will have more zeroes behind them. Not all of you will be able to or want to make these decisions. That is ok. Whatever point you want to disembark is ok. Making a million dollars is not easy and not for everyone.

M&M emails will be sent separately to LOTM Subscribers who want to follow or participate.

I ask that you hit the reply on this email to be included in a new M&M email sort. I do not want to clutter your email box with additional email for those who do not want to follow.

For the next twelve months starting July 1, LOTM's Making a Million (M&M) will free to regular subscribers of the LivingOffTheMarket newsletter.

I would ask that if you know of others who might have an interest, you pass this letter to them.

Additional instructions/ guidance will be emailed to those who want to participate and are subscribers to LOTM regular newsletter.
